

He has told you, O man, what is good;
and what does the Lord require of you
but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?
Micah 6:8

It cannot be done by man alone.
It cannot be done just by our goodness.

It's why God gives us his holy spirit,
so that we can discern justice — and act on it.
so that we can love kindness //

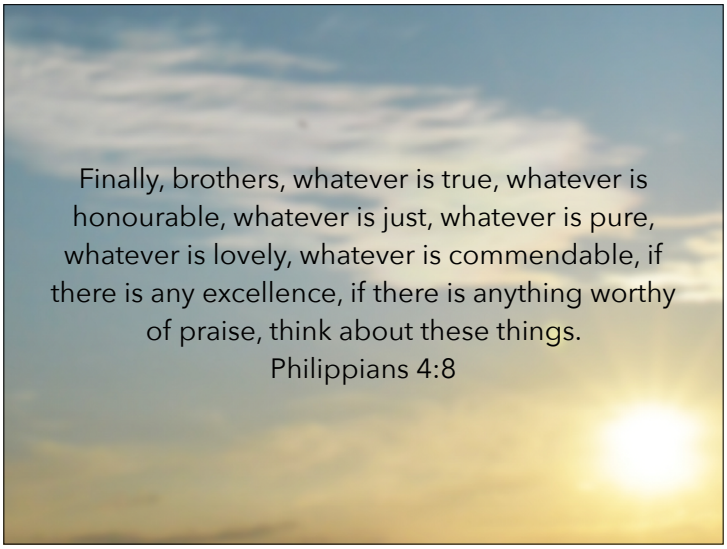

a. Justice differs over cultures
b. is there an objective morality?
    1. An objective morality suggests existence of a good God
c. Seek out and ask God, what is right. What is just.
d. know God.
a. Philippians 4:8

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Prisoners, outcasts, sick, hospitalised.
We remember how Jesus healed the lepers, the women, the prostitues.

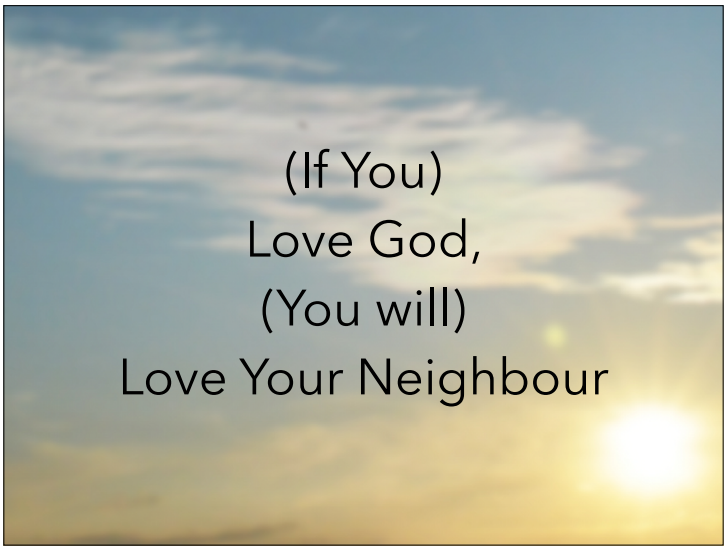

God redeems and restores the marginalised and outcast in society.
Justice isn't just about imprisonment — but it's also realising that all of us are in need, but have been saved by God's grace.

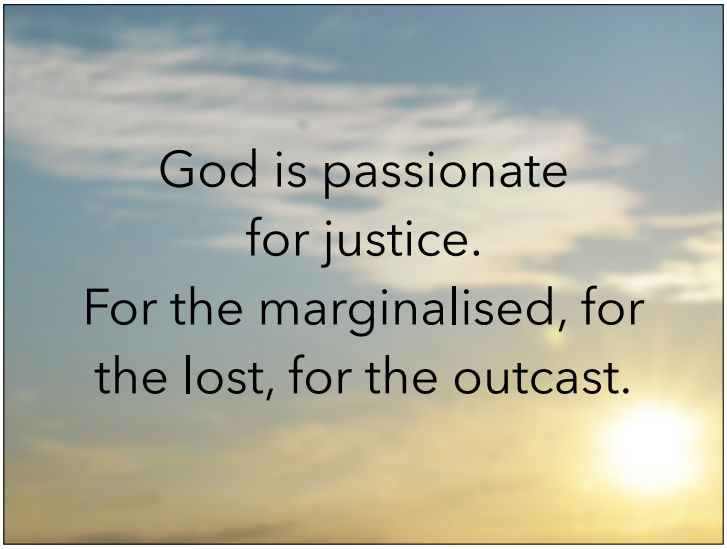

Our SPIRITUAL REALITY changed because of JESUS, and that hope changes things for us.

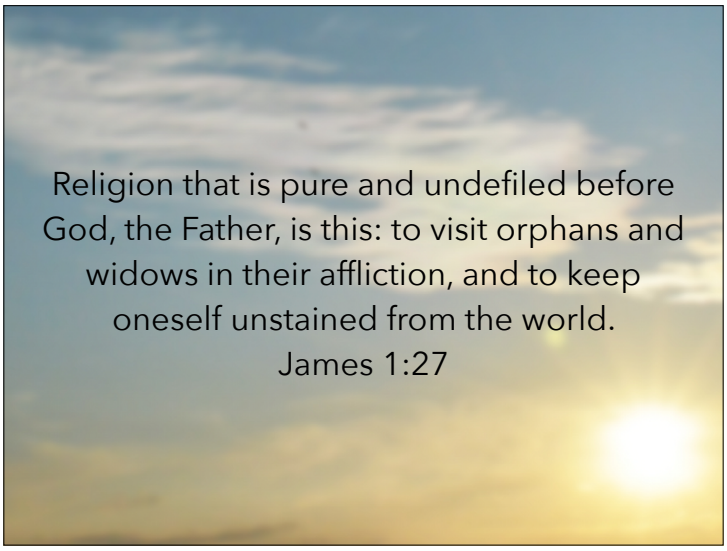

It cannot be done by man alone.

(If You)
Love God,
(You will)
Love Your Neighbour

God is passionate for justice.
For the marginalised, for the lost, for the outcast.

2. passionate for what is right.
    a. James 1:27
    b. Matthew 25:31-46

Why does Jesus say this? It's because he's passionate for those who are in need. The weak, neglected out cast, vulnerable in society.
When we look at Christian's over history, we discover that actually God has done so much
When you love God, you are passionate for what God is passionate for.
Jesus is passionate for those in need

Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in your power to do it.
Do not say to your neighbour, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"—when you have it with you.

God redeems and restores the marginalised and outcast in society.
