

He has told you, O man, what is good;
and what does
the LORD require of you
but to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?

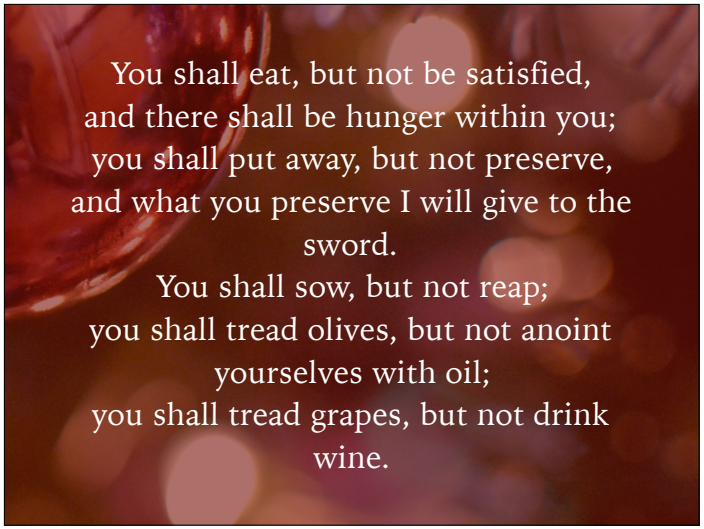

He has told you, O man, what is good;
and what does
the LORD require of you
but to do justice, and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?

[9] The voice of the LORD cries to the city—
and it is sound wisdom to fear your name:
“Hear of the rod and of him who appointed it!
[10] Can I forget any longer the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accursed?
[11] Shall I acquit the man with wicked scales
and with a bag of deceitful weights?
[12] Your rich men are full of violence;
your inhabitants speak lies,
and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
[13] Therefore I strike you with a grievous blow, making you desolate because of your sins.
[14] You shall eat, but not be satisfied,
and there shall be hunger within you;
you shall put away, but not preserve,
and what you preserve I will give to the sword.
[15] You shall sow, but not reap;
you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil;
you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.
[16] For you have kept the statutes of Omri,
and all the works of the house of Ahab;
and you have walked in their counsels, that I may make you a desolation, and your inhabitants a hissing;
so you shall bear the scorn of my people.”

[14] Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your inheritance,
who dwell alone in a forest
in the midst of a garden land;
let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in the days of old.
[15] As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them marvelous things.
[16] The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might;
they shall lay their hands on their mouths;
their ears shall be deaf;
[17] they shall lick the dust like a serpent,
like the crawling things of the earth;
they shall come trembling out of their strongholds;
they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God,
and they shall be in fear of you.
[18] Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity
and passing over transgression
for the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not retain his anger forever,
because he delights in steadfast love.
[19] He will again have compassion on us;
he will tread our iniquities underfoot.
You will cast all our sins
into the depths of the sea.
[20] You will show faithfulness to Jacob
and steadfast love to Abraham,
as you have sworn to our fathers
from the days of old.

the reality of
Christ

[14] Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your inheritance,
who dwell alone in a forest
in the midst of a garden land;
let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in the days of old.
[15] As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,

Jesus will shepherd his people. It's reflection of Psalm 23. That even in a bad time,

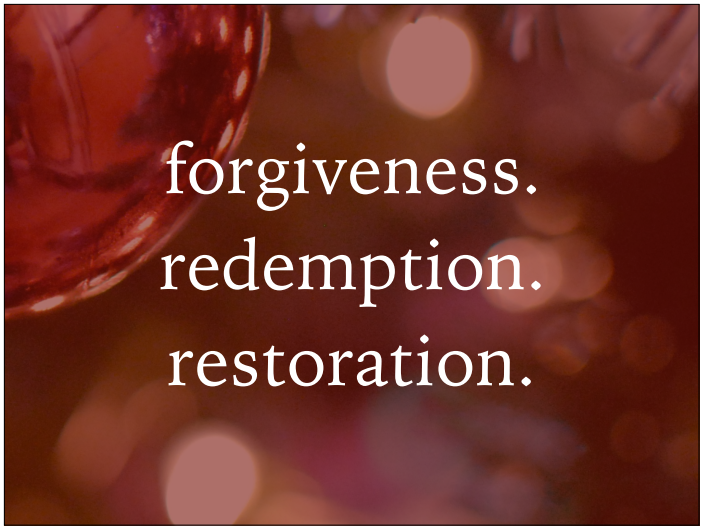

[16] The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might;
they shall lay their hands on their mouths;
their ears shall be deaf;
[17] they shall lick the dust like a serpent,
like the crawling things of the earth;
they shall come trembling out of their strongholds;
they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God,
and they shall be in fear of you.

This is about changing the world. Where this world becomes so distasteful, so horrible, so the power of

Christ

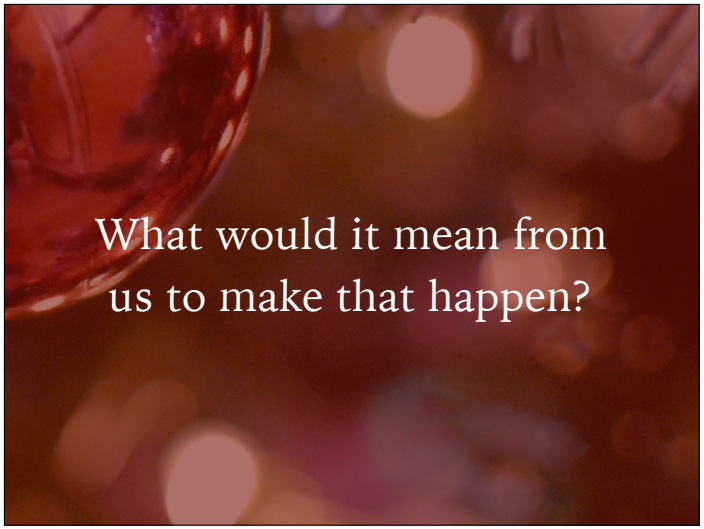

Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity
and passing over transgression
for the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not retain his anger forever,
because he delights in steadfast love.
He will again have compassion on us;
he will tread our iniquities underfoot.
You will cast all our sins
into the depths of the sea.
You will show faithfulness to Jacob
and steadfast love to Abraham,
as you have sworn to our fathers
from the days of old.

a challenge

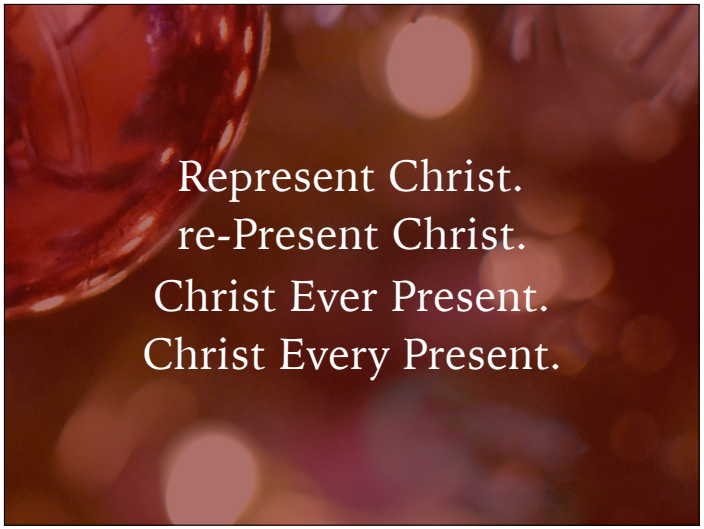

What do i mean by culture? Could we shape this culture from confusing sex with love? Could we turn this culture from escapism to seeking substantial.

What would it mean from us to make that happen?

Culture is not rigid. It’s flexible and has changed over the years. But we’ve stopped being influencers, and have become consumers.

grace. forgiveness. justice. righteousness. peace. love kindness. walk humbly with God.

Represent Christ.
re-Present Christ.
